Nostalgic Reflections
1923 — 1953 — 1977?

Foreword

Some of the most pleasurable experiences that one can have are to reminisce memorable occasions, lasting friendships, ceremonial events, and the respect held for his alma mater. The Washington High School alumni has been engaged in such activities and herein shares and documents these experiences through the nostalgia reflections issue of THE ECHO. The enthusiasm, optimism, determination, integrity, and pride of the alumni are responsible for the collating of this issue of "Nostalgic Reflections."

Summarily, we have endeavored to pictorially present: where we began; where we have been; what we have experienced; what we have done, and last, but not least, what we cherish, honor and respect.

As you turn the pages of this historical issue of THE ECHO, may you find pleasure reading and viewing it as we, the staff, found researching and compiling it.

History

The idea of the Washington High School Alumni Association stemmed from an informal gathering of five former Washington High School graduates called together by Mrs. Janie McIntyre Keyes. The meeting was held at her home in July, 1972. Those attending were Della Parker Perry, Ivonne Hart Pope, Eunice Young Joyner, and Shirley Morgan Tunstall.

This group discussed the possibility of having the WHS Alumni of the Forties.

After more former students had been contacted and became interested in forming such an association, a Steering Committee was formed which consisted of the following persons:

1. Janie M. Keyes — Founder
2. Della P. Perry — Co-Founder
3. Yvonne H. Pope — Co-Founder
4. Eunice Y. Joyner — Co-Founder
5. Ruby Powell Fain
6. Mabel Powell Casey
7. Martha Moore
8. Charles Irving
9. Norman Sanders
10. Dorothy Sanders
11. Barbara Hart Corbett
12. Lucinda Woods Farrell
13. Ester Perry Newkirk
14. Madeline Mials Keith
15. Hattie Wright Butler
16. Pecolia Branch Jones
17. Ruth Branch
18. Rogerline Harrison Gay
19. Ida Ruth Sanders Mials

This committee made contacts with a large number of graduates and former students in and out of Raleigh.

At our first Alumni Meeting held at Roberts Center, it was explained to the group that it could be an all-inclusive Association which would include those students who not only graduated but attended from 1923-1953 and would have graduated had they not dropped out for reasons beyond their control.

The original five people were hopeful that the Association would be steered toward civic affairs for the improvement of our community and our young people of the future.

Principals Of Washington High

Mr. L. S. Cozart

Mr. Joshua L. Levister

Professor J. L. Levister, disciple of good will and co-operation, whose untiring efforts and thoughtful advice inspired as well as directed the lives of boys and girls in the public schools of Raleigh for twenty-seven years, left a legacy of Humanitarian Spirit and forthrightness for all of us to emulate.

Mr. M.W. Akins

Mr. C. H. McLendon

To the Class of 1949:

For each member of the 1949 graduating class there is something worthwhile to do. It will utilize the whole of each individual, heart and hand, brain and brawn, soul and sinew. It should be done by you; it can be done by you. It is your duty.

What is to be done by you? Look for it. Yearn for it. Reach out for it. Lay hold upon it. The discovery of your duty is urgent and imperative.

When you find it, do it with all your might. Focus all your mind upon your work. Do it with all diligence and devotion. Concentrate upon your purpose without swerving or stopping. Get results that will satisfy and serve mankind. As mankind is served, Washington High School will be magnified.

C. H. McLENDON, Principal.

The final test of a leader is that he leaves behind him in other men the conviction and the will to carry on . . . The genius of a good leader is to leave behind him a situation which common sense, without the grace of genius, can deal with successfully.

Reward Of Service

by Elizabeth Browning

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds both great and small are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread,
Where love ennobles all.
The world may sound no trumpets,
ring no bells,
The Book of Life the slurring record tells.

Washington High School Hymn

I

Washington, for the glory of our deeds,
Lead, oh lead us, for true old gold and blue;
Lead, oh lead us, while gold and blue fly high,
Our victories are flying in the sky.

II

Lead, Washington, your sons to truth and light;
Lead, oh lead us; we strive with all our might.
There are loyal hearts and there are spirits brave;
We'll follow you, the old gold and blue.

III

Dear Washington, we love thy colors true,
Give us thy strength to fight this battle through;
Proudly we hail thy name with courage bold,
These daring colors we shall ever hold.

IV

Lead us, oh Lord, to ever live aright,
Help us to e'er be true to our creed;
To e'er uphold the motto of our school:
CHARACTER, COURTESY, AND CULTURE.

When I reflect on the eight years that I spent at the Washington High School, the “togetherness” of the student body always comes to mind. WHS students were always united in support of the “Little Blues” and their major annual publication, “The Echo.” I also vividly remember the well rehearsed, elaborately staged and thoroughly enjoyable assembly programs, choral concerts and dramatic presentations.

Elsie H. Perry

Susie Vick Perry

When one tries to remember a most important event in her long science teaching career, it becomes an impossibility. I do remember, that my main MEMORY lingers on the MANY ENTHUSIASTIC STUDENTS, who wanted to acquire scientific knowledge, and therefore, my career was dedicated, helping them find a MEANING TO LIFE, AND THINK FOR THEMSELVES.

As Rudyard Kipling said, “I keep six honest serving men, (They taught me all I know) Their names are WHAT AND WHY AND WHEN AND HOW AND WHERE AND WHO.” These key words were the basis for their learning, and achieving. A large number of Washington High School Students have made a place for themselves in careers of their choice. CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

THE FOUR P's

Education fails unless the three R's at one end of the school spectrum lead ultimately to the four P's at the other end:

Preparation for Earning Preparation for Living
Preparation for Understanding, and Preparation for Participation in the problems involved in the making of a better world.

Something Of Yourself

You simply give to others a bit of yourself — a thoughtful act
a helpful idea
a word of appreciation
a lift over a rough spot
a sense of understanding

You take something out of your mind, garnished in kindness out of your heart,
and put into another fellow's mind and heart.

Dear Mr. Williams:

Please accept this letter as a congratulatory statement for the fine work that you have done with your football team this year and throughout your coaching career.

I feel that there is no better team to represent the Eastern part of North Carolina than the "Little Blues". I enjoy watching your team play, because they execute better fundamentals than any team I have seen in the State.

You have paid the laborious price. May victory be yours on Friday, November 17, 1950.

Yours in sports,

Rocky Mount's Tigers Completely Outclassed

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. — The Washington High School Little Blues completely dominated play in defeating Booker T. Washington Tigers 13-0 and thus win their fifth Eastern Conference game. The score is no indication of the performance turned in by the visitors as they registered 11 first downs to Rocky Mount's two, one of which was aided by a penalty.

The visitors took eight plays to score their first touchdown following a short punt by Rocky Mount, which dropped on their own 31 yard line, in the opening minutes of the initial period. Bear Wilder bucked over from the four-yard stripe. McGuire and Wilder alternated in putting the ball on the four with a pass from Wilder to Lassiter. Wilder hit the line for the extra point.

In the third period Co-captain William Perry slipped through to block a punt and Pete Jeffers pick-

'Battle Of Washingtons' At Rocky Mount 1945-

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.—Elusive running, hard blocking, fast tackling, and superior punting highlighted the "Battle of the Washingtonians" last week when "Big Pete" Williams brought his Capital City charges here to invade Coach E. C. Burnett's Fighting Bookers in their own backyard.

All action was furnished by the visitors, as the locals took a more spectator attitude, even more so than the paid admission.

The invaders played a brand of ball patterned after the United States Marines; they moved in and took over. And before the end of the first quarter they had established a beach head, and the situation was well in hand.

Wilder, hard running back for the Raleigh team, received a 20 pass and scampered within a few feet of the goal line before being brought down from behind. This mattered very little, however, because Wilder went over on the very next play, standing up. A sweeping end run did the trick for the extra point. From then on it was all Raleigh with the half ending 7-0.

The final stanza was an almost complete duplicate of the first with the score being made by a recovered blocked punt and a dash across the goal line. The try for the extra point failed.

An intercepted pass and a twenty yard run by Wallace of the Bookers were the only thrills furnished by the home team for the fans, who went wild at the exhibition; these cheers were soon quieted when Wilder, 'Old Reliable,' dropped back to punt and placed the ball in the coffin corner, two feet from the goal line.

The game ended with Raleigh in front, 13-0

Raleigh Team Chalks Up Fourth Win

Little Blues Prep For Homecoming Game On Friday

RALEIGH, N. C.—A powerful aerial attack featuring Shep Faulk and Sherwood Jones was unleashed here Friday by the Little Blues of Washington High School as they turned back Dillard High School of Goldsboro 14-6.

A 65 yard drive from the opening kickoff with two passes completed by the above combination gave the locals their first score a few minutes after the game started. This was the fourth win for the locals against no defeats.

Again near the end of the second period the Blues traversed 42 yards with two of the Faulk-Jones passes and added the second score.

Shep Faulk annexed both extra points with his ever true drop-kicks. On the second he was apparently in all kinds of trouble with a fumbled ball which he picked off the ground and made good the conversion.

On a fumbled punt in the first of the second quarter the Dillards got the ball at mid-field and on the next play Co-Captain Samuel Williams zig-zagged and twisted his way down to pay dirt. They failed to convert.

In a scoreless second half both teams punted often with Shep Faulk having the edge and passes flew in the air frequently. On two successive plays the Blues showed they had another end and his name is also Jones, but this time Ernest "Doc" Jones, who caught two passes from Faulk good for 40 yards. With a first down here the Goldsboro gridders rose to the occasion and two passes and one line play failed and Faulk kicked in the end zone.

The performance of Henderson, Captain Chandler, Cumbo, and June Paige must be reckoned with the combination of Faulk, Jones and Jones, when one considers the best in the Blues lineup.

Leroy and Samuel Williams, Emual Daye and Mack Hicks were best for the visitors.

With a record of four victories in as many starts the Little Blues began looking forward last weekend to the homecoming game Friday with the Lions of Booker T. Washington High School, Rocky Mount.

LED CHAMPIONS—Co-Captains Joe Person, left, guard, and Arthur "Squirrel" McGuire, right, halfback, sparked the Washington High School Little Blues of Raleigh to the North Carolina championship. McGuire was sensational in the final game which saw the Blues outclass the Gastonia High School team, 20-0, last Friday.

COACHED CHAMPIONS—These are the coaches of the Washington High School eleven of Raleigh, N. C. which won the North Carolina championship last week, beating Gastonia, 20-0. They are, left to right,— Merman Hill, assistant; Peter H. Williams, head coach; and James Baker, assistant. The three coaches are all Shaw graduates.

Washington High School

IN RETROSPECT: WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

Washington School was first located on the Southwest corner of South and McDowell Streets. It was a frame building. Classrooms had outside doors. The second floor had a long porch.

Mr. Frank Harper was the first Superintendent that I remember. Mr. John Branch was principal. He died rather suddenly and my father, Joshua Lee Levister, was called to fill the vacancy. He was at the time a teacher at Shaw University.

The School included the first through eighth grades. When Shaw and St. Augustine's enrolled high school students, the City paid tuition fees for such students. Later, Shaw gave notice that the High School department was being cut off gradually. The ninth grade was then added to Washington School.

At this time, it was evident that a site needed to be found for a high school for Negroes. The Fayetteville Street site was finally agreed upon. The building was completed and my father was its first principal. He had done much canvassing during the previous summers to acquaint the parents with the situation.

He worked very hard to enrich the curriculum and to improve the general environment. The first class graduated 1927.

The Class of 1945 dedicated the yearbook to him. The dedication read —
Professor Joshua Lee Levister

To Professor J. L. Levister, disciple of goodwill and cooperation whose untiring efforts and thoughtful advice have inspired as well as directed the lives of boys and girls in the public schools of Raleigh for twenty-seven years, we, the Senior Class of 1945, do dedicate this edition of The Echo. May it forever bring back pleasant memories of the Class of 1945.

He was retired at the end of the school year 1945-46.

He passed January 18, 1947. He is remembered best by the young lives he touched and his untiring efforts toward making for a better Raleigh and better inter-relationships.

He was respected and loved by all who knew him. He was a Christian gentleman, a lover of children, a devoted husband and father. He left for them a great heritage.

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

(National Negro Hymn)

Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hopes that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou hast brought us thus far on our way,
Thou who hast by Thy might
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

To Principals of Accredited High Schools:

Subject - Crown and Scepter Clubs.

My dear Co-worker:

I do not know the Faculty advisor to your Crown and Scepter Club so I am addressing this letter to you, asking that you get it into the hands of the proper person.

The Crown and Scepter Club is preminently an honorary, scholarship organization and the Spirit of the Club must never be lost - i.e. its members are chosen by their fellow students because they excel in scholarship, character, and service to the school.

Copies of the Constitution and of the ritual for the installation service will be sent to you from my office upon request. Copies of the gold certificates for "Gold" graduates may be secured at small price from Dr. C. C. Shaw, Mary Potter School, Oxford, N. C. When possible the Club should present the gold pins to the "Gold" graduates. There will usually not be so very many. These gold pins and "Gold Certificates" should be presented at the commencement exercises.

The official jeweler to the Crown and Scepter Clubs is The Eagle Regalia Company, 115 Nassau St., New York City. This arrangement was made for us by Mr. J. A. Tarpley, Principal of the Washington St. High School, Greensboro. The Eagle Regalia Company has agreed to furnish the pins for one year at the following prices: The sterling silver pin at 90¢ each net; and the 25 year gold filled pin at $1.00 each net. These prices will be continued to us another year provided a sufficient number of pins are purchased to justify the low price.

Get your Club to work and see that the members have pins. (The silver pin for regular members and the gold pin for "Gold Graduates") I shall be glad to know how the Clubs are progressing and what projects they set for themselves this year. Let me know so that I can let the other Clubs know. Will you kindly have your faculty advisor send in the inclosed questionnaire to my office.

Sincerely,

W. A. Robinson

Mr. J. W. Yeargin

The first P.T.A. organization of Washington High School undertook the project of beautifying the grounds of the new school by changing the steep sloping hill on which the school was built into tiered levels and also by providing side-walks from the building to the street below.

Mr. J. W. Yeargin, the first president of the newly formed organization personally assisted in supervising the terracing of the grounds and donated the sand and gravel from his own back yard for the construction of cement side-walks and steps of these tiers.

Washington High School became an admired tour site by visitors to the city who witnessed that its exterior was not only one of beauty but that it was located on the famous Fayetteville Street, the hub of the business district of the city, which faced the Southern entrance to our State Capitol and which was one of the 4 highways leading from the Capitol to the historic sites of Hillsboro—West, New Burn—East, Hallifax—North and Fayetteville—South.

Washington High School Raleigh, North Carolina May 12, 1938

To The Boys of the Class of 1938,

Tonight marks the eleventh graduation of the Washington High School, and I am very happy to greet and congratulate you on this eleventh anniversary. I greet you also as son of the school, and on behalf of the sons of that famous class of 1927, and all the classes that follow, I extend to you a most cordial welcome into the order known as the sons of Washington High School.

During the time which you have spent here at our school, I trust that you have caught sight of a vision — a vision of life that beckons you on to new tasks, and new avenues of service. Certainly there will be new tasks to face, and new avenues on which you must tread.

May I suggest that as you face these new tasks and as you walk down the new avenues of life, ever keep before you the sincere teachings at the Washington High School. Let your life be always guided by two words — Character and Scholarship, and with your eyes turned toward the rising sun, take your place in life wherever the Great Stage Manager of this Universe places you.

My concluding words to you on the night of your graduation are the words of the famous poet, Edwin Markman — And I quote:

“To each one is given a marble to carve, for the wall, A stone that is needed to heighten the beauty of all; And only his soul has the magic to give it grace; And only his hands have the cunning to put it in place.

“Yes, that task that is given to each one, no other can do; So the errand is waiting; it has waited through ages for you. And now you appear; and the hushed ones are turning their gaze To see what you do with your chance in the chamber of days.”

I wish you much success, and if there is anything we can do to help you, we shall be pleased to do so.

Sincerely,
yours,

Henry T. Johnson
Dean of Boys
